SPECIALIST IN GOOD CLOTHES FOR MEN AND YOUNG MEN

YOU'LL learn several new things about a clothing store when you come here. One is the advantage of picking out clothes from a stock of fine goods and nothing else. No store in Ada we are sure has ever brought together so large a stock of exclusive fine goods--Clothes, Hats, Furnishings, Shoes--as you'll find here.

Another thing you'll learn is that we serve our customers in a better way. We'll show you how its possible to be more interested in getting you what you want than in selling you something that you don't want.

Young Men's Special Styles

Here's where fancy has full play--ultra fashion in model, in coloring, in patterns and weaves. It's the sort of things that young fellows are eager for. College and High School fellows, smartly dressed young business men--any man who wants extreme style with high quality--you're all invited.

OREL BUSBY, THE KID MAYOR OF KONAWA

The News is always pleased to learn of the success of former Ada boys, no matter where they may be. Consequently it desires to extend congratulations to the citizens of Konawa on their election of Orel Busby as mayor of the town. Orel was one of the most popular and brilliant students of the Ada normal last year, and graduated at the close of the term. The News is not surprised at his rise, for nothing else could be expected of a young man of his ability and good habits.

Yesterday's Oklahoman contains a cut of the kid mayor and has the following to say of him:

"Orel Busby, the newly elected mayor of Konawa, is entitled to the distinction of being the only 'boy mayor' in Oklahoma. He is just 21 years old and was elected at the regular election April 4, just a few days after he had attained his majority."

"Mayor Busby has always taken great interest in political matters. In college he was active in the affairs of the debating clubs and last fall during the campaign 'stumped' Seminole county in favor of the adoption of the 'grandfather clause.' He was an ardent supporter of Governor Cruce."

"The 'boy mayor' has lived in Oklahoma practically all his life, his parents having settled in the Indian Territory when he was less than a year old. He lived on a farm until 12 years old and attended a three-months in the year subscription school. He then moved to Ada with his parents and entered high school there. After finishing high school he attended the state university at Norman two years.

"During his freshman year at Norman he was a member of the umpire board, speaker of the house of representatives (a literary society), and corresponding secretary of the students' democratic club. While attending school at Ada he was president of the senior class and editor of the Pathfinder, the school publication."

"Mayor Busby came to Konawa last September to become principal of the public school here. Shortly afterward he was appointed city clerk. His activity in behalf of the city caused his friends to urge him to run for mayor. He made a clean race. The only thing his opponents accused him of was being 'extremely youthful.' Mayor Busby's father is engaged in the drug business here."

Knights Templar Celebrate Easter.

In accordance with the custom of the order, the Ada Commandery Knights Templar, celebrated Easter by attending worship in full regalia, this time attending the Methodist church.

QUESTIONS LEGALITY OF PIPE CONTRACT

An informal meeting of the city council was held this morning to consider a point raised by the purchasers of the Byrd's Mill bonds in regard to the contracts for material let Monday evening. In the original specifications it was ordered that the line be constructed of cast iron or steel. However, when the council met to award the contracts it was considerably impressed with the feasibility of wood pipe and the prospect of saving a neat sum of money for the town. A contract covering about half of the line was let, but C. A. Loomis, attorney for the bond purchasers, maintains that the council had no right to vary materially from the original specifications and that such act was illegal. The question was discussed at the meeting this morning but as the meeting was purely informal, no action could be taken. The regular weekly meeting will be held this evening at which time the matter will likely come up for final disposition. If it develops that the council cannot thus vary from the original program, the contract will doubtless go to a Kansas City firm for steel pipe in place of the wood.

REFRIGERATORS EASY PAYMENTS SMITH 203-5 W. Main St.

It is also expected that the council will let the contract for putting down the line.

Fretwell-Adair.

Saturday evening the marriage of Mr. W. B. Fretwell and Miss Art Adair was solemnized. The newly wedded couple left yesterday afternoon for a wedding tour to Wilburton, where relatives of the groom reside. They will return to Ada in a few days to make this their home. The groom is a promising young man with the ability to make good. The bride is the daughter of W. B. Adair and wife and has a host of friends in Ada.

The News wishes the young couple a happy and prosperous life.

THE ITALIAN TERRORISTS

THEIR METHODS EXPOSED IN TRIAL AT VITERBO,
ITALY.

Viterbo, Italy, April 17.—The most interesting revelations made by Genaro Abbateuaggio, the Camorrist informer, at the trial of the members of that organization for the murder of Cuocolo and his wife, had to do with the real nature of the Camorra, the dreaded association which first found its way from Arabia into Spain and from Spain into Southern Italy, and how its adherents are chosen.

The Camorra in the city of Naples as Abbateuaggio explained, is divided into fourteen bands, one for each region of the city. Each band is composed of twenty-four Camorrist and forty-eight picciotti (recruits) each, one of the former having two of the recruits at his disposal. Each picciotti in turn is served by five or six giovani onorati (honored youths). The latter are aspirants for membership in the society.

Thus in Naples alone there is a body of upward of 5,000 men determined in character, resolute and tried in astuteness and intelligence. This army, which has ramifications in almost every class of society, is practically directed by two men, the capoin testator (head of heads) and the contaiuolo, or cashier, who takes the place of the head when necessary. Both of these officials are elected by a majority of voters. The contaiuolo is generally an old Camorrist, clever in exacting each day the gains from the members, or able to handle them roughly if they refuse to pay.

Instructions for Recruits.

The picciotti are chosen from among the giovani onorati, and are instructed in their duties by the Camorrist. They are obliged to swear perfect obedience, after which the newly admitted member kisses every Camorrist, beginning with the head of heads, in token of good faith.

When the ceremony of admission is about to be carried out, the society meets at the request of one of the members, after having posted the picciotti note to be taken by surprise. The Camorrist who has called for the assembly submits the name of his candidate and offers to act as his padrino (kind of godfather). He enumerates the services which his candidate has rendered, entering as ardently as possible into the details of thefts, burglaries and other important crimes which the picciotti who desires to be promoted to the estate of Camorrist has committed, not forgetting to call attention to the sfergo inflicted, which are razor slashes across the cheeks of the persons who have to be called to order, which marks are very prominent on the faces of both Abbateuaggio and Erricone, the latter the reputed leader of the society.

Part of Prosecution.

As in a court of justice, there is a Camorrist called the terzo contrario, who takes the part of public prosecutor and finds arguments to oppose the admission of the candidate. Even when these arguments are safely met, the candidate must, in the presence of the members, undertake the tirata, a kind of duel the gravity of which varies according to circumstances and individuals. Generally the tirata is perfunctory, in which case it is called of "the muscles," because combatants are allowed to wound each other only in the muscles of the arm which they bare before engaging in the combat. If the candidate injures any other part of his opponent's body he is disqualified.

In a basin placed in the center of the meeting place, generally a tavern, five knives are placed. Two of these have sharp points and keen double-edged blades, two have only the points sharpened, while the fifth is characterized by its great length. The knives are covered with a white handkerchief. The god-father of the candidate and a second, chosen for his adversary take the knives with the double-edged blades, the head of the Camorra takes the long knife while the candidate and his opponent grasp the others.

The duellists are then placed back to back, with arms bare to above the elbow, and when the head cries, "In the name of the saints, Cosmo and Damian, one, two, three," they turn and the combat begins. It continues until one or the other is stabbed in the arm. He who has done the stabbing immediately sucks the wound, kisses his opponent, as a bond of friendship, and bandages the injury with the white handkerchief taken from the basin.

Each new member admitted must pay to the contaiuolo 15 lire ($3) as an entrance fee, half of which goes to the head of the Camorra and the other half to a fund for the purchase of a banquet.

When there is such a deep-rooted antagonism between the candidate and his opponent that one of the two must fall forever, the duel or tirata is termed "of the box."

In such cases all the knife thrusts must be directed toward the upper part of the body or the head, as in a duel with rapiers.

These duels, however, are rare.

W. M. Elrod Dead.

Saturday W. M. Elrod, who lived in Portland Park Addition, died from tuberculosis. The interment took place at Rosedale cemetery, Rev. A. M. Dupree conducting the services. Deceased was about 25 years of age. He was for a time employed as operator at the Katy depot, but for sometime past has been suffering from the disease which finally conquered him in the battle for life.

Thieves Busy at Baptismal Service.

Enid, Okla., April 16.—While the ordinance of baptism was being administered to twenty-five people in the Loewen theater here tonight at a revival, conducted by the Rev. Charles Reign Scoville, thieves entered a room in the rear of the building where the clothing and belongings of the converts were left during baptism, and stole about $20 in money and several pieces of ladies' wearing apparel. The theft was not discovered until after the baptismal ceremonies were over. When the room was entered clothing was scattered in every direction, pockets were turned inside out and reports of missing pocket books came thick and fast.

Garage Changes Hands.

Chaney & Hunter have sold their garage on 12th street to R. W. Adkins, late of Little Rock, Arkansas. The News extends him a hearty welcome to the city and wishes him prosperity.

Carnival Company Has Streak of Bad Luck.

The carnival company arrived Saturday afternoon and pitched its tents on the vacant lots on West 12th street south of the Byrd hotel. However, the rain today has put something of a damper on the enterprise. However, a little sunshine is all that it will take to put full life into the carnival and start it off in grand style.

HIDDEN QUALITIES.

Replying to a knocker a well known man is said to have exclaimed: "You can't always tell from appearances. What if the man who discovered the oyster had never opened the shell?"

There is a whole sermon in that remark. Many men are unfortunate in their general makeup and are handicapped in the beginning. Outside appearances are against them, but underneath the unpromising exteriors beat hearts as honest and as true as ever beat in the breast of a king or president. It only needs some one with the power to discern their real worth and give them a chance to run the race of life along with the more fortunate. The diamond is only a rough stone until it passes through the hands of the polisher and the man who by a word of kindness or by extending a helping hand to the struggling one when it is needed, may do a far greater thing for the world than the one who brings out the sparkle of the diamond. Give the man who is making an effort to do something for himself a little encouragement and a fair chance. He asks for nothing more and needs nothing more.

PRACTICAL POINTS FOR
POST OFFICE PATRONS.

Are you a box holder at this office?
If so, it was furnished for your convenience. Do you appreciate this convenience? If so, kindly read the following extracts from the Postal Laws and Regulations, observe the requirements and note a few suggestions following.

"Postmasters are required to see that box holders lock their boxes and are not permitted to rent boxes to persons who fail to keep them locked."

"Box renters are required to exercise proper care in the use of boxes, that glass, locks, etc., be not unnecessarily damaged."

"Postmasters should refuse to rent boxes to those who, in their use persistently disregard the Postal Laws."

"The Department reserves the right to close ones box at any time prior to the expiration of a quarter without refunding any portion of the rent paid therefor, in all cases, wherein by the use thereof, the Postal Laws have been violated."

"Box rents are payable Quarterly on or before the last day of the Quarter prior thereto and if the same be not paid as required, the box shall be closed, offered for rent and the mail placed in the General Delivery."

"Suggestions."

Keep your boxes locked. This is what they are for and for the protection of your mail. Do not give your box combination to all your neighbors, it is your private property, but if you do and some of your mail is misplaced, you might have occasion to blame the Postmaster.

Boxes are automatic and lock themselves when closed. Do not slam the door, push it to gently and it locks.
Many boxes are out of order now, because of this violation and subject to being closed against you.
There are over Eight Hundred boxes in this office and an average of five persons getting mail therein, have your correspondence directed to your box number as well as your name, this will insure prompt and accurate delivery and greatly assist us in serving you.

Use the same caution and care to your correspondence and us the same consideration that you expect us to give to your mail and note the remarkable improvement in the handling of your mail.

Show us the same respect and courtesy that you do your banker, your merchant, and others with whom you come in contact in a business way and watch the illuminating smile spread over the faces of the employees of this office and they will be tickled to death to serve you as they are not used, to such treatment and I believe the effort would be the experiment.

Help us serve you, but do not do any more than you require of us and have a right to expect. That's what we are herefor, that's our duty and what we mean to do and only ask you to co-operate with us for your own convenience.

Yours respectfully,
U. G. WINN, Postmaster.

Hog Cholera Serum.

Stillwater, Okla., April 14.—The Third Legislature, recently adjourned, appropriated $7,500 to be expended by the College in the manufacture and distribution of hog cholera serum. The College has been manufacturing serum in limited quantities for some time and this has apprentive of cholera in hundreds of cure.

With the increased funds available for serum work the college is now serum many times, and we hope by doing this to meet the expectation of the legislature and to practically stamp out the disease now so largely prevalent in Oklahoma. Doses of serum will be supplied at twenty cents each and the amount received will be placed in a revolving fund and reinvested in the manufacture of serum. By adopting this plan we hope to cover all sections of Oklahoma with a comparatively small appropriation at our disposal. Some states have provided large sums for the campaign against hog cholera which has rendered it unnecessary to charge applicants for serum sent out.

Your co-operation and assistance in fighting this disease is desired and requested. The college will give further information upon application.

He Wanted All That Was Coming.

New York, April 17.—The night court here was treated to an unusual sensation just before midnight when Dominick Hearn, a Brooklyn resident, was fined $10 for disturbing the peace. Hearn was ill pleased with the court's decision and expressed his opinion in a loud tone.

"You'll wait a long time for that $10, four eyes," he shouted to the spectated magistrate.

"I'll change that fine and send you to the workhouse for twenty days," said the magistrate.

"Aw, gwan, make it more," said the prisoner.

"Once more," shouted Hearn.

"Two months," said the magistrate.

"Do it again," sneered Hearn.

"Six months," adjudicated the court Hearn then demanded a year and expressed his opinion of the court in caustic terms. It took three policemen to remove him from the court room.

"I wish I could have made it a year," said the magistrate. "Unfortunately six months is the limit."

Carter Demands Investigation.

Washington, April 15.—Representative Charles D. Carter of Oklahoma wants an investigation of the causes that led to the displacing of D. C. Mc-

Curtain as chief of the Choctaws after he was appointed, but before he could qualify for the office. To this end Representative Carter today introduced a resolution requesting the president to furnish to the house information regarding the appointment of D. C. McCurtain as chief of the Choctaws and to transmit any letters, telegrams, indorsements or documents bearing on the subject on

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 percent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Reckall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchasers' money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Reckall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. The Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

Healthy Mothers

The bearing of children is frequently followed by poor health for the mother. This supreme crisis of life finding her physical system unprepared for the demands of nature, leaves her with weakened resistive powers and sometimes chronic ailments. This can be avoided if Mother's Friend is used before the coming of baby, and the healthy woman can remain a healthy mother. It is the only remedy that perfectly and thoroughly prepares the system for healthy motherhood, and brings about a natural and easy consummation of the term. Women who use Mother's Friend are always saved much suffering when the little one arrives, and recover more quickly, and her health by using Mother's Friend, thus preparing her physical condition for the hour of motherhood. This medicine is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

GREAT SERVICES YESTERDAY

A FULL DAY AT THE MEETING AT THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

It was a great day yesterday at the First church of Christ where a meeting is being conducted by Evangelist R. A. Blalock of Wagoner.

At 9:45 a. m. enthusiastic Bible school services were held, with L. T. Walters superintending. One hundred and fifty-six were present and an offering was made for the orphanage work.

At 11 a. m. Mr. Blalock spoke on "The supremacy of Love." It was an appeal for a life whose dynamic is love for God. Love gives, the gift determines the measure of love. It overcomes obstacles, and will make sacrifices were some of the points urged.

At the afternoon service for men only Mr. Blalock was at his best on the subject, "A Man's Job." It was possibly the greatest service of any during the meeting for spiritual power and uplift. A great audience of strong men were out and enough power was between the four walls of the church wrapt up in those men to shake Oklahoma in a mighty wave of righteousness. Another meeting will be held for men only next Sunday afternoon.

At 6:45 a splendid Christian Endeavor meeting was held conducted by R. W. Williams.

The closing service of the day begun at 6:45 with a lively song service conducted by L. T. Walters. It was inspiring and put the congregation in fine shape for the sermon on "A Voice From the Dead."

The audience taxed the capacity of the church. There were three confessions during the day, making twenty-eight so far during the meeting.

The services will continue. Tonight's subject being "Found Out at Last." A baptismal service will be conducted at the close tonight.

Sermon to Men Only.
The speaker said in part, that what we need today is a strong pure manhood, the forces of evil are abroad in our land seeking the destruction of our fairest and purest daughters of our strongest and noblest sons.

The saloon and the brothel would destroy every home in Ada and would overthrow every law on the statutes of our great state, that was placed there for the protection of our homes. Men I want to say to you that if these awful forces of evil which imperil the very life of our nation, are to be overthrown, or even kept within the bounds of safety to society, we must have an army of strong, courageous men to fight this battle.

Too long have some of us allowed our poor old mothers, our wives, sisters and daughters to fight this battle alone. Oh! my brothers, I appeal to you today in the name of your sainted mothers, in the name of your wives and little ones, arise in the strength of your manhood and fight, fight for your homes, fight for the wife who loves you, and for the children whom God has given you. Men, this work is too heavy for the women and the children to do it alone. This IS A MAN'S JOB.

The work of the church challenges the best in every man.

The noblest type of manhood on earth today, is found among the men who have given their lives to Christ, and who in the strength of their regenerated, purified, manhood are bravely fighting the forces of evil, which unhindered would destroy the lost hope of human happiness.

God help us all to be men, men who are worthy the love of a pure woman, men worthy the devotion of innocent childhood.

DIAZ PREPARING

FOR CAMPAIGN

Mexico City, April 16.—A general call for volunteers to serve for a period of six months was posted in this capital today. The call is made to all citizens between the ages of 18 and 45 years who desire to lend their services to the country. The pay offered is one peso (50 cents) a day, besides clothing and equipment. The customary inducement of advancement in rank and to those who prove worthy is included.

In addition to the regular army, including such volunteers as may be secured, the war department has at its disposal numerous volunteer organizations maintained by wealthy planters, mine owners and others.

Daily the government is offered the services of these men and while the cases of their acceptance have been rare, the department can at any time, by availing itself of these bodies of men, increase its fighting force to the extent of many thousands.

This activity in the war department overshadows today the much talked of plans for peace. Both Mexicans and Americans in the capital were inclined to believe that the end of the revolution is still far off. Officially Mexico is not treating with the rebels. Day by day the desire for peace grows greater and government officials and business men hope that the unofficial negotiations begun at Washington may bear fruit.

Minister De La Barra continued today to express the belief that a compromise may be effected, but Dr. Vasquez Gomez at Washington and Francisco I. Madero in the field are probably the only two men who can say what the outcome will be. Tonight Minister De La Barra stated that the negotiations begun at Washington between himself and Dr. Vasquez Gomez had not reached a stage where he was able to state what the result would be.

Giuseppe Garibaldi.

It was just a little more than fifty years ago that Giuseppe Garibaldi, the Italian patriot, electrified the world by the capture, with his red-shirted thousand, of the island of Sicily. During the six months between May 5, 1860, and November of that year, occurred the most remarkable of the exploits of his romantic life. He was the one man of the world who, with any prospect of success, could have led a revolutionary raid against 60,000 regular troops armed with good rifles and cannon.

The raid which ended in the making of an Italian nation was made successful by the genius of a magnetic personality and the strategic skill of a soldier who had learned the craft of the guerrilla chieftain during the years he spent on the plateaus of South America.

A recent eloquent English historian, in writing of "the most romantic life that history records,"

Victor Emmanuel, and Italy was almost "made." Then came an act of self-abnegation very remarkable in the midst of the self seeking which is the inevitable accompaniment of even the noblest human enterprises. In November, 1860, he resigned the dictatorship of Sicily and Naples, and with a large bag of seed corn and a small handful of lira notes, he sailed back to his farm on the island of Capra, leaving Victor Emmanuel as the constitutional monarch of Italy. Here he lived the simple life until called by death on June 2, 1882.
